Author of the Month: Nancy Tafuri

Best known as the creator of Have You Seen My Duckling?, Nancy Tafuri has written and illustrated more than 45 books for children over 30 years.

Tafuri was born in Brooklyn, New York, and was an only child for the first ten years of her life. She says this helped her to learn to entertain herself with stories and art. After attending the School of Visual Arts in New York City in the 1960s, Tafuri worked as an assistant art director for Simon & Schuster before later opening her own graphic design studio with her husband, Thomas, in 1971.

“I feel honored to be creating literature for young children. Seeing how very important the early years are in a person’s life, I can only hope that my books can contribute in some small way to that growth, with the feelings that I hope I project within those pages, through line, color, shape, and story.”

Other Author Birthdays:

Robert Louis Stevenson,
Marc Brown,
C.S. Lewis,
Madeleine L’Engle,
Louisa May Alcott,
& Mark Twain

M.O.R.E

will be at the Moncks Corner
BBQ Festival on Saturday,
November 8, 10am—4pm.
